Response to Amendment

1. The amendment and arguments of April 30, 2008 have been entered.
2. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. Claims 18-21, 23, and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Frank et al.

Frank et al. show a fuel injector comprising a housing 1 having a first bore with a first diameter and a second bore with a second bore having a diameter larger than the first diameter, and a step between the first and second bores, the step having a width and a step surface; a first component 6 and a second component 2 as recited, the second component having an end surface; and a coining ring having a contact surface in contact with the step surface and having an annular width and a height as recited, the annular width being wider than the step width defining an enlarged contact surface between the second component and the step, the end surface of the second component being in contact with and resting on the enlarged contact surface (see attached Figure 1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. Claims 11-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frank et al.

Since Frank et al. discloses the structural limitations of the instant invention (see attached Figure 2), the methods would have been matters of design choice to accurately position the various components during assembly.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 22 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed April 30, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Frank et al. discloses the structural limitations as recited in instant invention as shown in the attached Figure 1 and Figure 2. Regarding the method claims, whether a product is patentable depends on whether it is known in the art or it is obvious, and is not governed by whether the process by which it is made is patentable.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
